

ARTICLE ____

ACADEMIC FREEDOM

1. Faculty members are entitled to the right of full freedom of expression in the classroom and other educational settings within the School. In addition, they are entitled to full freedom of expression in the performance of research, promotional marketing, and in the publication of the results of such research. Faculty members should make every effort to be accurate in their statements, to respect the rights of others to express their opinions, and to indicate that they are not spokespersons for the School unless so designated by an officer of the School.

2. A bargaining unit member shall not be disciplined or deprived of any professional advantage for exercising his/her rights to academic freedom as set forth in this Article or as protected under the First Amendment of the United States Constitution.
